

8
million tons per year

The numbers tell the story

GE's new LNG supertrain includes three strings, each comprised of a Frame 9 gas turbine driving two centrifugal compressors. Six units are destined for the world's largest LNG facility in Qatar. Each one enables 8 MTPY production capacity. This is breakthrough technology for the LNG industry – where economies of scale are critical to a plant's success.

For more information, visit www.ge.com/oilandgas

imagination at work