

Orbit

A Technical Publication for Advancing the Practice of Operating Asset Condition
Monitoring, Diagnostics, and Performance Optimization

Vol.27 No.1 2007

Cover Story

- 4 Fruitful Results: How System 1* Software Pays for Itself

Case Histories

- 12 Synopsis of Savings
- 24 Hydro Oil & Energy's New North Sea Operations Center Cuts
Production Losses
- 34 Diagnosing and Correcting a Rub in a Mechanical Drive Steam
Turbine at Syncrude Canada

New Product Showcase

- 16 An All-New Version of the ProxPac* Probe Housing Assembly
- 18 ADRE* Transducer Power Supply Module
- 19 TK-3 Proximity System Test Kit
- 20 New Stand-Alone Tach100 Tachometer Now Available

Recip Tips

- 22 Mechanical Protection for Cylinder Pressure Transducers

Back to Basics

- 62 Beat Frequencies

Announcements

- 15 Give us your e-mail, get e-ORBIT!
- 23 2007 Users Conferences
- 33 Minden Facility Achieves VPP Recertification
- 65 Customer Application Centers

From the Desk Of

- 14 Taking Excellent Care of Our Customers
- 60 MDS – At Your Service

Applications

- 44 The Morton Effect and Light Rubs
in Rotating Machinery
- 52 Considerations When Using Extended
Field Wiring Lengths With Bently Nevada
Transducers

CONTRIBUTORS

Syncrude Canada Limited

Terry Lupien

GE Energy

Chuck Adams
Jared Angel
Bob Eisenmann
Brian Howard
Rune Knoff Baldersheim
Arthit Phuttipongkit
Jeff Sipek
Francesca Wei Wu

CREDITS

Machine cutaway drawing on page 63 courtesy of TEMA/Seibtechnik. Used by permission.

Photos on pages 34–35 courtesy of Syncrude Canada Ltd. Used by permission.

Photos on pages 24–28 courtesy of Hydro
Oil & Energy. Used by permission.

Artwork page 33 courtesy of US
Occupational Safety and Health Administration. Used by permission.

The * symbol denotes trademarks of the General Electric Company.